

Nance Gilmartin is Back!

Have you ever found yourself at a loss for words when something unexpected happens, like illness, death or loss of a job.

Karen's friend Nance Gilmartin, Emmy award winning journalist and author will be a guest on "Money Sense", Sunday February 22, 2004 from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. Some may remember her seminar for our client appreciation event last year. Nance's book, "Healing Conversations", is a helpful guide in dealing with difficult conversations and may give us direction in handling uncomfortable conversations.

Nance has dedicated her life to help bring awareness around difficult conversations in order to keep all of us connected during these economic times that continue to remain challenging. She will share with us some of her experiences traveling throughout the United States as a professional speaker and addresses many different audiences on the issue of staying connected to those around us.
